Dear Members of the Waldron Mercy Academy Community,

Happy New Year! We hope you enjoyed celebrating the Christmas holidays over these past few weeks. As the new year begins, we wanted to reach out and share an update with you on our recent search efforts on behalf of Waldron Mercy Academy to identify a new Principal.

We are in the process of circulating the position description and actively recruiting and evaluating candidates. We have also begun to confidentially share initial potential qualified candidates with the Search Committee.

The position description and our contact information remain posted on the school website. We invite the Waldron community to share any input or suggestions with our team. We are grateful to those who have reached out and contacted us with their feedback and referrals. Please feel free to share our contact information with anyone who could be interested in providing input into the search.

We are grateful for your support and your understanding of the confidential nature of the search process.

Sincerely,

The Lambert & Associates Team
