Dear Members of the Waldron Mercy Academy Community,

Thank you to those who participated in our recent conversations regarding the upcoming search for the new Principal. We are grateful for your insight and input.

For those who were unable to participate or would like to provide additional feedback, we wanted to share our contact information to give you the opportunity to reach out and share any additional thoughts or suggestions. Please feel free to email your view of what is unique and special about Waldron Mercy Academy along with your view of the current culture and environment. Regarding the Principal role specifically, please share your views on the primary responsibilities of the role, priorities for the new Principal, and what you view are the most important characteristics and experiences for the new Principal to bring to the position.

We appreciate your input and engagement as the search process gets underway. If possible please provide your feedback by Wednesday, November 23, 2022.

Sincerely,

The Lambert & Associates Team
